Chesapeake Bay Candle Introduces Limited Edition Holiday Collection 2009 Celebrate the Season with Three New Exquisite Chesapeake Bay Candle Signature Fragrances

Rockville, MD (June 8, 2009) -- Chesapeake Bay Candle, the candle and home fragrance brand bringing scent, style, and ambiance to every environment, unveils the new limited edition Holiday Collection.

An extension of the Chesapeake Bay Candle Signature Collection, the limited edition features three new exquisite, festive scents inspired by the joyous glamour of the holiday season.

The luxurious multi-note scents of Wild Ginger Cassis, Siberian Fir Pomander, and Black Star Anis are available as finely fragranced soy candles ($20) and reed diffusers ($30). The limited edition Holiday Collection also includes a Pomander with Scented Sachet ($25, available in Wild Ginger Cassis only).

The filled candles are contained in a special edition silver mercury glass featuring our Signature tree motif in clear glass – allowing the glow of the candlelight to shine through the mercury vessel. The candles are made from soy wax for sustainability and a cleaner burn and feature 100% cotton, lead-free wicks and are hand poured by skilled artisans.

Pomanders are balls made from perfume that originated in medieval France. They were usually contained in golden or silver globular cases attached to neck-chains or the girdle, and were said to have legendary magical virtues protecting and empowering the wearer. Our modern Wild Ginger Cassis pomander is a fragranced jewel that makes for a very special gift for friends and family. It can be used to create a glamorously festive atmosphere with fragrance in the home, or can be worn in a purse, or even on the body.

Every item of the Holiday Collection is wrapped in a decadent gift box featuring silhouettes of timeless blossoming trees spread over silver foil paper with ombre shading.

About the Three New Chesapeake Bay Candle Signature Fragrances

Fruit – Wild Ginger Cassis:

An intriguing fruity blend that opens with notes of cassis, autumn currant and sweet sugar plum. Undertones of green rhubarb leaf, soft herbs and sheer cinnamon are added to this spicy wintry fragrance.

Wood – Siberian Fir Pomander:

A delightful holiday fragrance composed of crushed fir needle and crisp green mistletoe. Delicious notes of winter bayberry and a splash of citrus add a fresh accent to the blend.

Gourmand – Black Star Anis:

A delightfully aromatic and unique blend captured in spicy notes of crisp anis seed and black licorice root. Notes of rich patchouli and sweet tonka bean offer a smooth ending to this creation.

CHESAPEAKE BAY CANDLE®

The limited edition Holiday Collection will become available via the Chesapeake Bay Candle online boutique www.chesapeakebaycandle.com and select gift and specialty stores starting October 1, 2009.
